

RUBRICS FOR PRESENTATION (adapted from Song Jiang, 2013)

Name: _____

		Developing 1	Acceptable 2	Good 3	Excellent 4
Content (30%)	Value	No original thought	Discrete personal opinions	Overall systematic original thoughts	Mature and systematic original thoughts
	Organization	Discrete, random organization	Somewhat illogical and disorganized	Generally logical and flows smoothly	Logical and flows smoothly
	Development & Effectiveness	No relevant supporting material	Limited or peripheral supporting materials	Generally effective supporting materials	Provide adequate supporting materials for the topic
Delivery (30%)	Physical Appearance	Read the script, stage fright	Have difficulty to speak freely and independently	Refer to script a few times	Proper physical appearance, eye contact, body language
	Voice	Cannot be clearly heard	Too loud, light, fast or slow at certain points,	A few inappropriate points	Appropriate volume and speaking speed
	Manner	Not assured, talk to self	A few assured moments, generally lack confidence	Not assured or confident at certain point, generally good.	Assured, direct, confident and enthusiastic
Language (30%)	Grammar & Word selection	Not enough to evaluate	Limited range of patterns and expressions; frequent grammatical errors	A few inaccurate vocabulary or pattern choices	A good range of patterns and expressions, no big grammatical errors
	Pronunciation	Severe systematic errors	Some errors affecting expression	A few errors don't affect expression	Accurate pronunciations of initials and finals
	Tones and intonation	Random or no tones and intonation	Some systematic errors in tones and intonation	A few errors in tones and intonation	Native or near native tones and intonation
Visual (10%)	Design and Presentation	Not enough to evaluate	Inadequate, irrelevant visual support	Generally clear and adequate visual support	Adequate, clear, vivid and effective visual support